A STORY™

Mt Pleasant Public Library

Visit each location to find a clue to fill in the answers below! Bring your Scavenger Hunt to either library for a prize! Each right answer is a raffle for the grand prize!

Once upon a _____(1) a boy packed a picnic lunch and went into the forest to chop _____(2). He met a little old man who asked to share his picnic. The boy said, "I don't have much, but of course I will _____(3)". The little old man rewarded his kindness with a _____(4) pterodactyl.

The boy _____(5) the golden pterodactyl and went to _____(6) to sell his wood. Three sisters watched as he got set up, and when his _____(7) was turned the oldest snuck up and touched the golden pterodactyl. She instantly became _____(8) to it! The middle sister, who always did what her older sister did, touched it and got stuck too. They tried to stop their little sister, but she didn't listen and became stuck _____(9).

The boy was so busy _____(10) his wood he didn't notice the girls at all. He sold everything and decided to treat himself to a meal with his _____(11).

He picked up the golden pterodactyl and went off to find food.

As he walked down the street, a merchant saw the girls stuck to the statue and tried to pull them off, but the merchant got stuck _____(12)! They shouted to the baker for help, and the baker got stuck also!

The boy continued _____(13) the street with the golden pterodactyl, 3 girls, the merchant and the baker, and passed the castle where a very _____(14) and lonely princess _____(15). She saw the parade and laughed _____(16) loud for the first time in forever.

The _____(17), upon seeing his daughter's delight, offered the boy anything he wanted in appreciation. He responded, "All I really want is a library _____(18)".
